

Group Health Centre

RN Family Health Worker/Congestive Heart Failure Temporary Full-Time contract up to (6 months)

Compassion

Respect

Kindness

Accountability

The Organization:	The Group Health Centre is a progressive multi-specialty ambulatory care health care organization, and is one of Canada's first consumer-sponsored health care facilities. As Ontario's largest and longest-established alternatively funded healthcare organization, Group Health Centre serves over 70,000 Sault Ste. Marie and Algoma District residents.
Position Summary:	The role of the FHW/CHF RN is to ensure effective transitions from acute to home and community care to provide holistic support, case management and advocacy for the patient/family living with complex chronic diseases including Congestive Heart Failure and patients with multiple co-morbidities. This program will also ensure communication and linkage with primary care and provide timely and effective nursing in an individual's place of residence and/or tele-homecare.
Required Qualifications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Registered Nurse license with a valid certification and Registration with The College of Nurses of Ontario (CNO) in good standing • Must have a valid driver's license and access to a vehicle to visit patients in the home or other sites where patients receive care • Current CPR Certification
The Ideal Candidate will Possess:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minimum of 5 years' experience in a clinical setting • Excellent interpersonal skills, with a flexible and creative approach to problem solving • The ability to work effectively as a member of an interdisciplinary team, displaying good clinical judgment and decision making skills • Excellent communication skills both written and verbal • An understanding and developed skills in the health coaching of patients to improve their health behaviours • Working knowledge of community resources and roles of health care professionals • Knowledge of direct care/case management models used in community health organizations • The ability to provide transitional support and care for clients from hospital to home, make connections with primary care providers, and perform essential medication reconciliation activities • The ability to liaise with patients and their care team in reviewing and discharging care plans, facilitating access to other health care practitioners/medical tests and assisting with medication protocols • The ability to support the physical, social, emotional, and spiritual needs of the patient • Demonstrated ability to create and maintain successful working relationships with a range of health care partners • Ability to meet and interact with people in a pleasant, professional, and reassuring manner • Cardiac Certification; Guided Care Nursing Certificate an asset • Proficient in the use of EPIC
Compensation:	Salary as per the ONA Collective Agreement – $32.07 to $42.76 commensurate with experience
Operations:	Monday to Friday – Business Hours Weekends & Holidays Off
Applications By:	January 19, 2022

Please apply to recruitment@ghc.on.ca

Interested applicants are asked to submit a cover letter and resume indicating their qualifications for the position by January 19, 2022. Those selected for interviews will be required to demonstrate their qualifications and required skills and abilities as outlined above. Group Health Centre is committed to an application and interview process and work environment that is inclusive and barrier free. Accommodation will be provided in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code/AODA. Applicants need to make any accommodation requests for the application or interview process known in advance by contacting the Human Resources Department at 705-759-5513. Please note the Group Health Centre is a Scent Sensitive Organization.